To polish and publish a modern retelling of Romeo and Juliet.

One cool calm summers evening in Verona when you could see the beautiful sunset descending into the approaching darkness. The ultimate rivalry between two great super markets the Montagues and Capulets, broke into another battle. The latest incident was that Montagues found the Capulets moving items around the shop so shoppers couldn't find the items they wanted. Also the Capulets were over writing those adverts and saying 'don't come to Montagues go to the Capulets instead'. Therefore the Montagues did the same the same. As a consequence mayor Escalus said that if there was anymore fighting he would kill them. Subsequently the mayor of Verona threatened them that he would close down both shops and he would banish them from the town.

Twenty four hours later, the Capulets 'Employee of the Month' awards ceremony was held in the biggest hall you will ever see and it was the most full room in the entire of the whole world. There was a massive stage and huge chandeliers hanging from the ceiling. There was the head of the Capulets shop, announcing the award. It was Tybalt who won the award. Romeo, Benvolio, Mercutio sneaked in to the hall and seen that Tybalt had won and they were laughing their heads off. After half an hour later the ceremony turned into a disco and every one started to dance with there partner. Unfortunately there one person not dancing named Juliet. She was waiting for a partner Romeo was drunk in love. He started to strol towards her the emceeing at the post was Romeo so he wanted to dance with her so he went to dance with her. Romeo fell in love instantly as soon as he seen her eyes they had to get married.

Twenty four hours after, the secret wedding day came friar Lawrence married the happy couple, Romeo and Juliet. Later that week Romeo was strolling at that moment Tybalt jumped out from behind the trees and shouted "me winning your laugh did it?"

Romeo replied, "yes yes it did"

Tybolt laughed, "I challenge you to a duel" Romeo declined.

Mercutio jumped in front and took the duel Tybolt killed him and Romeo killed Tybolt with rage. The mayor of Verona heard this and banished him.

One hour later Juliet ran to friar Lawrence after overheard that Tybolt was killed by Romeo and her parents were forcing her to marry Paris. friar Lawrence made a deadly brew made of mice keep and sleeping powder and whisper.

"If you eat this you will be in a slumber for 42 hours then when you can go away with Romeo"

"please don't forget to tweet the to Romeo"

he replied, "of course"

Juliet ate the brewer and fell asleep.

A while later, Lord and Lady Capulet found out that Juliet that their Juliet had not come down for breakfast. They ran up the diamond encrusted stair case to Juliet's chamber. To their surprise she was dead on the floor. They were sobbing in sorrow. After a while they transported Juliet's body to the tomb. Romeo's pa Balthazar heard that Juliet died and told Romeo, running to him. Romeo was speechless and went to an underground dagger christ and bought a cup of poison. He just mist the tweet so he did not get the tweet.

Out of breath, Romeo arrived at Juliet's tomb and saw his Juliet and ran to her. He was feeling lonely so he drank the poison and fell to the floor in pain. Juliet woke up from her slumber and saw Romeo dead on the floor. She looked inside the poison bottle but there none. she picked up Romeo's dagger and stabbed herself with anger and sorrow. The Capulets found the two bodies inside of the tomb. The mayor of Verona scolded at both houses for what had happened because of them. never there was a story of more wee that of Juliet and her Romeo.
